Nienkämper introduces the Nabu™ Collection New seating from Bang Design that exceeds all expectations

CHICAGO, June 13, 2011 – Nienkämper, a leading designer and manufacturer of fine office furniture products has announced today the introduction of the Nabu™ Conference chair and complementary guest chairs, designed by Bang Design, to debut at NeoCon 2011, June 13-14th at The Merchandise Mart in Chicago.

The Nabu™ conference chair is a comfortable, elegant chair. At a competitive price, it is the perfect fit for today's boardrooms and conference rooms, private offices or as a visitor chair. Combining contemporary design with the advantages of innovative mesh fabric, Nabu™ conference chair conforms to the shape of each individual to minimize pressure points and increase airflow. The flexible, breathable backrest creates comfort for periods of extended sitting.

Nabu™ features a unique open frame backrest that becomes part of the chair's tailored aesthetic. The open shape is revealed by the translucent mesh fabric that is available in 30 vibrant colors. Whether it's conference seating or multi-use, the Nabu™ family of chairs fits perfectly into any workspace and budget.

The Nabu™ conference chair is easily paired with the Nabu™ side chair to create a thoughtful and cohesive aesthetic throughout any environment. Nabu™ conference chair's slender profile fits nicely in any office environment, it is very simple but still generous in its proportions. In modern or classic surroundings Nabu™ conference chair exceeds all expectations for comfort durability and value.

About Bang Design

Bang's founders, Bryan Marshall and David Granger, are Industrial Design Graduates (1983) whose parallel vision saw them join forces in 1989. At times Bang seeks diversity in projects to cultivate new ideas and a broader appreciation. For Bang, design is a verb not a noun. www.bangdesign.com/au
