Distinguished by its organic and fluid form, Nienkämper RIVER is an exciting and highly flexible concept in public seating. Nienkämper River functions perfectly alone as individual pieces, but can also be used in various combinations to cast more unique and distinctive spaces. Nienkämper River allows you to create multiple solutions in wide range of settings from reception areas, waiting rooms and other open spaces. Benches in various sizes and shapes, Nienkämper River is accented by optional tables and coat racks reminiscent of the branches and stones found along the rivers edge.
